1. BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

1.1. The purpose of this document is to outline:

- How Cornwall Housing Ltd (CHL) will ensure compliance with the UK GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018.
- Explain the roles and responsibilities relevant to internal compliance.
- How compliance with this policy will be monitored

Does this policy relate to me?

1.2. This policy applies to all the processing of personal data carried out by CHL including processing carried out by joint controllers, contractors, and processors.

2. INTERPRETATION – KEY TERMS

2.1. Data Controller: the person or organisation that determines when, why and how to process personal data. We are the data controller of all personal data used in CHL.

2.2. Data Subject: a living, identified or identifiable individual about whom we hold personal data.

2.3. Data Privacy Impact Assessment (DPIA): an assessment to identify and reduce data protection risks of a data processing activity or project.

2.4. Data Protection Act 2018: The legislation which ratifies the GDPR in English law.

2.5. General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR): the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679). Personal data is subject to the legal safeguards specified in the GDPR.

2.6. Personal Data: any information identifying a data subject or information relating to a data subject that we can identify (directly or indirectly) from that data alone or in combination with other identifiers we possess or can reasonably access. Personal data includes the special categories of personal data but excludes anonymous data or data that has had the identity of an individual permanently removed. Personal data can be factual (for example, a name, email address, location, or date of birth) or an opinion about that person's actions or behaviour. The GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018 apply to any information held about a living, identifiable individual.

2.7. Personal Data Breach: any act or omission that compromises the security, confidentiality, integrity, or availability of personal data or the physical, technical, administrative, or organisational safeguards that we or our third-party service providers put in place to protect it. The loss, or unauthorised access, disclosure, or acquisition, of personal data is a personal data breach.

- 2.8. Privacy Notices: notices setting out information that may be provided to data subjects when we collect information about them.
- 2.9. Processing or Process: any activity that involves the use of personal data. It includes obtaining, recording, or holding the data, or organising, amending, retrieving, using, disclosing, erasing, or destroying it. Processing also includes transmitting or transferring personal data to third parties.
- 2.10. Special Categories of Personal Data: personal data concerning racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or similar beliefs, trade union membership, physical or mental health conditions, sexual life, sexual orientation, biometric or genetic data.

3. INTRODUCTION

- 3.1. This policy provides a framework for ensuring that Cornwall Housing Ltd CHL meets its obligations under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 18). Cornwall Housing is registered as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) registration number Z7599901.
- 3.2. This policy applies to all personal data CHL process regardless of whether it is in electronic form or hard copy or whether it relates to past or present employees, customers, clients or supplier contacts, board members, volunteers, website users or any other data subject.
- 3.3. Our staff have access to a number of policies, operational procedures, and guidance to give them appropriate direction on the application of the data protection legislation.
- Retention and Disposal Policy
 - Freedom of Information Guidance
 - RARE requests (including SAR)
 - Data Breach Guidance
 - Equality and Diversity Policy
- 3.4. This policy is an internal document and should not be shared with third parties, clients, or regulators without prior authorisation from the Director of Resources.
- 3.5. This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment. CHL shall keep this policy under regular review and may amend it from time to time.

4. SCOPE

- 4.1. Protecting the confidentiality and integrity of personal data is a critical responsibility that we take seriously at all times. CHL are exposed to potential fines of up to the higher of up to £17.5 million or 4% of total annual turnover for failure to comply with the provisions of the GDPR.
- 4.2. This policy applies to all employees, workers, contractors, volunteers, agency workers, consultants, Directors, and Officers and to any other third party who processes personal data on CHL behalf. All staff must ensure they read, understand and comply with this policy when processing personal data as part of the staff work role.
- 4.3. The CHL Board has overall responsibility for the effective operation of this policy. The Director of Resources will oversee this policy. Please contact the Information Governance Officer (IGO) with any questions about the operation of this policy or if you have any concerns that this policy is not being or has not been followed.

5. REPORTING A BREACH

- 5.1. CHL have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breaches and will notify the data subject or the regulator (ICO) where we are legally required to do so. We maintain a record of all personal data breaches which will be reviewed regularly.
- 5.2. If staff know or suspect that a personal data breach has occurred, do not attempt to investigate the matter. Immediately contact the IGO and follow the CHL Data Breach Guidance Data Protection and FOI \(sharepoint.com\) . Staff should preserve all evidence relating to the potential breach.

6. WHAT INFORMATION IS PROTECTED

- 6.1. Personal data includes any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural living person. There are two types of personal data under the UK GDPR, personal data, and special category data.
- 6.2. Personal data means any information relating to a living individual who can be identified from that information (a “data subject”) or on its own when taken together with other information. This may include both facts and expressions of opinion about the person. It does not include anonymised data.
- 6.3. Special category data is more sensitive and afforded more protection under the UK GDPR. This includes information relating to:

- Race or ethnic origin.
- Political opinions.
- Religious or philosophical beliefs.
- Trade union membership.
- Genetic data.
- Health data.
- Information relating to sexual life and/or sexual orientation; and
- Criminal data (convictions and offences).

7. PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

7.1. CHL ensure that all personal data is processed in accordance with the data protection principles set out in the UK GDPR. Personal data must be:

- processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner.
- collected only for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes.
- adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which it is processed.
- accurate and where necessary kept up to date. Any inaccurate data must be deleted or rectified without delay.
- not kept for longer than is necessary for the purposes for which it is processed; and
- kept secure and protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction, or damage.

7.2. There is also an overarching principle of accountability. CHL must ensure responsibility for complying with the UK GDPR and able to demonstrate this. CHL demonstrate accountability by:

- appointing a Director of Resources.
- implementing privacy by design measures at the outset of processing personal data and completing data privacy impact assessments where high-risk processing is likely to be carried out.
- putting in place suitable policies and privacy notices regarding our data processing activities.
- providing annual training to our staff on data protection matters; and
- by conducting periodic reviews and audits to assess our compliance with the UK GDPR.

8. LAWFULNESS OF PROCESSING

- 8.1. Personal data must be processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner. Staff may only collect, process, and share personal data for lawful and specified purposes.
- 8.2. Personal data can only be processed if one or more of the following conditions apply:
- the data subject has given their consent to the processing.
 - the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject.
 - to meet CHL legal compliance obligations.
 - to protect the data subject's or another person's vital interests.
 - the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest; or
 - to pursue our legitimate interests (this ground is not available to public authorities).
- 8.3. Additional measures apply to the processing of special category data. Two or more of the conditions set out in the UK GDPR must apply. If staff are processing special category data, please contact the IGO to ensure that CHL are confident processing the data on the correct lawful basis.
- 8.4. Prior to processing any personal data, staff must identify the legal ground that is being relied on. If unsure what the correct legal ground is, then please contact the IGO.

9. CONSENT

- 9.1. CHL may process personal data if we obtain consent to do so. A data subject consents to the processing of their personal data if they indicate agreement clearly, either by a statement or positive action, to the processing. Consent requires affirmative action, so silence, pre-ticked boxes or inactivity are not sufficient methods of demonstrating consent. Explicit consent requires a very clear and specific statement (not just action).
- 9.2. Data subjects must easily be able to withdraw their consent at any time. Consent must be re-obtained if staff intend to process personal data for a different purpose which was not disclosed when consent was first obtained.
- 9.3. When processing special category data or criminal convictions data, CHL will usually rely on a legal basis for processing rather than consent or explicit consent where possible. Where explicit consent is relied upon, staff must issue a privacy notice to the data subject.

- 9.4. Staff must keep records of any consent obtained so that we can demonstrate our compliance with the UK GDPR.

10. TRANSPARENCY AND PRIVACY NOTICES

- 10.1. CHL must provide specific information to data subjects through privacy notices. Privacy notices must be concise, easily accessible and in clear and plain language.
- 10.2. Whenever CHL collect personal data directly from data subjects, including data collected for HR or employment purposes, must tell them who the data controller and the Director of Resources and how and why CHL will use, process, disclose, protect, and retain their personal data.
- 10.3. When personal data is collected indirectly (for example, from a third party or publicly available source) CHL must provide the data subject with a privacy notice as soon as possible after collecting or receiving the data. CHL must also check that the personal data was collected by the third party in accordance with the UK GDPR.
- 10.4. If staff are collecting personal data, directly or indirectly, then they must provide a privacy notice to the data subjects. For assistance with this requirement please contact the IGO.

11. PURPOSE LIMITATION

- 11.1. Personal data must be collected only for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes. It must not be processed in any manner which is incompatible with those purposes. Staff cannot process personal data for any new or different purposes; must only process it in accordance with the purpose it was originally collected for.

12. DATA MINIMISATION

- 12.1. Personal data must be adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which it is processed. Staff may only process personal data when the performance of their role requires it. Staff cannot process personal data for any reason unrelated to their role. When personal data is no longer needed for the specified purposes, it was collected for, then it must be deleted or anonymised in accordance with our data retention policy.

13. ACCURACY

- 13.1. You must ensure that the personal data CHL holds is accurate, complete, kept up to date and relevant to the purpose for which CHL collected it. Staff must check the accuracy of any personal data at the point of collection and at regular intervals afterwards.

14. STORING PERSONAL DATA

- 14.1. Staff must not keep personal data for longer than needed in accordance with the purpose for which it was originally collected. Please refer to the Data Retention guidelines policy for further information on how long different types of personal data can be maintained for.
- 14.2. Staff must take all reasonable steps to destroy or erase from our systems all personal data that CHL no longer require in accordance with the record retention guidelines. This includes requiring third parties to delete that data where applicable. The period for which CHL store the personal data must be set out in the applicable privacy notice.

15. SECURITY, INTEGRITY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

- 15.1. Personal data must be kept secure by appropriate technical and organisational measures to prevent unauthorised or unlawful processing, and against accidental loss, destruction, or damage.
- 15.2. CHL have and will continue to develop, implement, and maintain safeguards appropriate to the size, scope and business, our available resources, the amount of personal data that CHL own or maintain on behalf of others and other identified risks. Staff are responsible for protecting any personal data that you process as part of their role from loss and unauthorised access, use or disclosure. Staff must follow all procedures CHL put in place to maintain the security of personal data.
- 15.3. Staff must maintain data security by protecting the confidentiality (only people who have a need to know are authorised to use the personal data can access it), integrity (personal data is accurate and suitable for the purpose for which it is processed) and availability (authorised users are able to access the personal data when they need it for authorised purposes) of personal data.

16. TRANSFERRING PERSONAL DATA OUTSIDE OF THE UK

- 16.1. The UK GDPR restricts data transfers to countries outside of the UK unless adequate measures of protection are in place. Staff transfer personal data originating in one country across borders when they transmit, send, view or access that data in or to a different country.

- 16.2. Staff may only transfer personal data outside the UK if certain conditions apply. If you believe that you, one of the suppliers or another third party engaged by us, needs to transfer personal data outside of the UK, then staff must notify the DPO prior to any transfer taking place.

17. DATA SUBJECT'S RIGHTS AND REQUESTS

- 17.1. Data subjects have rights when it comes to how we handle their personal data. These include rights to:

- withdraw consent to processing at any time.
- request access to their personal data that we hold.
- prevent our use of their personal data for direct marketing purposes.
- ask us to erase personal data if it is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which it was collected or processed or to rectify inaccurate data.
- request a copy of an agreement under which personal data is transferred outside of the UK.
- object to decisions based solely on automated processing, including profiling.
- prevent processing that is likely to cause damage or distress to the data subject or anyone else.
- be notified of a personal data breach which is likely to result in high risk to their rights and freedoms.
- make a complaint to the supervisory authority (ICO); and
- in limited circumstances, receive or ask for their personal data to be transferred to a third-party.

- 17.2. CHL must verify the identity of an individual requesting data under any of the rights listed above.

18. SUBJECT ACCESS REQUESTS

- 18.1. Data subjects have the right to receive a copy of the personal data that CHL hold about them. Upon receipt of a valid request and verification of the relevant identification documents, CHL will provide a statement confirming what personal data is held, process, the reasons for the processing it and how long CHL will store it for.

- 18.2. All requests should be submitted to the IGO and to Dataprotection@cornwallhousing.org.uk please follow the CHL Subject Access Request Guidance. We will respond promptly and in any one event within one month of receiving the request. Before responding we will check the identity of the person making the request.

- 18.3. In some cases, for example where CHL process large amounts of an individual's data, CHL may respond in a period longer than one month. CHL will write to the individual within one month of receiving the original request to advise them if this is the case.

19. FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 AND ENVIRONMENTAL INFORMATION REGULATIONS 2004

- 19.1. The Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) and Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIR) allows members of the public to request information from public authorities. As CHL is wholly owned by Cornwall Council, we may be required to provide certain information. If you receive a request under either the FOIA or EIR then staff must refer it to the IGO and to housingfoi@cornwallhousing.org.uk and follow the CHL Freedom of Information Request Guidance (a link to the guidance will be inserted here).

20. STAFF TRAINING AND GUIDANCE

- 20.1. All staff who works for or on behalf of Cornwall Housing Ltd has a responsibility for ensuring that data is collected, stored, and processed appropriately in line with the UK GDPR and this policy.
- 20.2. All staff must undergo all mandatory data privacy related training that you are directed to complete regarding compliance with data privacy laws. All staff are required to complete a mandatory e-learning module on the UK GDPR.
- 20.3. Failure to comply with this policy and the UK GDPR can amount to a disciplinary offence and will be addressed under CHL Disciplinary Policy.

21. PRIVACY BY DESIGN AND DATA PROTECTION IMPACT ASSESSMENT (DPIA)

- 21.1. CHL are required to implement privacy by design measures when processing personal data by implementing appropriate technical and organisational measures (like pseudonymisation) in an effective manner. This means CHL are required to consider the data processing activities at the outset of any programme, system, or process.
- 21.2. The purpose of a DPIA is to systematically analyse, identify and minimise any data protection risks in a project or plan. CHL must conduct DPIAs in respect of any high-risk processing. This could be, for example, where staff are required to process special category personal data on a large scale.

21.3. CHL must also conduct a DPIA when implementing major new business systems or business change programs involving the processing of personal data such any high risk-processing (such as processing special category data on a large scale), the use of new or changing technology or where automated processing (including profiling) is used.

21.4. A DPIA should include:

- a description of the data processing and the purposes of the processing.
- an assessment of the risk to individuals; and
- the measures that are in place to, or are proposed to be put in place, to mitigate against any data breaches.

21.5. If staff are unsure whether a DPIA is required or require further guidance on how to conduct a DPIA then please contact the IGO.

22. DIRECT MARKETING

22.1. Consent is required for electronic direct marketing. The limited exception for existing customers known as “soft opt in” allows an organisation to send marketing texts and email in certain limited circumstances. Data subjects can opt out of direct marketing. If staff wish to use direct marketing, then please contact the IGO for further advice and guidance.

23. SHARING PERSONAL DATA

23.1. Generally, CHL are not allowed to share personal data with third parties unless certain safeguards and contractual arrangements have been put in place.

23.2. Staff may only share the personal data we hold with another CHL employee if the recipient has a job-related need to know the information.

23.3. Staff may only share the personal data we hold with third parties, such as our service providers, if:

- they have a need to know the information for the purposes of providing the contracted services.
- sharing the personal data complies with the privacy notice provided to the data subject and, if required, the data subject’s consent has been obtained.

- the third party has agreed to comply with the required data security standards, policies and procedures and put adequate security measures in place.
- the transfer complies with any applicable cross-border transfer restrictions; and
- a fully executed written contract that contains UK GDPR-approved third party clauses has been obtained.

23.4. If staff are unsure whether you are able to transfer personal data to a third-party then please contact the IGO.
